CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

Background

1.1 The Food Safety Ordinance (Cap. 612) (the Ordinance) was published in the Gazette on 8 April 2011. Part 2 of the Ordinance requires any person who carries on a food importation or food distribution business to register with the Director of Food and Environmental Hygiene (DFEH). The registration scheme is an important component of the food tracing mechanism introduced in the Ordinance¹. The scheme will assist DFEH in identifying and contacting registered food traders speedily in a food incident. The registration cycle is for a period of 3 years, subject to renewal.

1.2 This Guide to the Registration Scheme for Food Importers and Food Distributors (the Guide) is issued by the Centre for Food Safety (CFS) of the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department. It aims to provide general information to assist traders in their applications for registration as food importers and food distributors under the Ordinance, and to answer some of the frequently asked questions. It also sets out circumstances under which an application may be refused or a registration may be revoked.

1.3 This Guide is provided for information only. It does not have the force of law and should not be interpreted in any manner which would override the provision of the Ordinance. In case of any inconsistency, the statutory provisions will prevail. This Guide should not be regarded as legal advice. If you need legal advice, you must contact your own lawyer.

1.4 This Guide is subject to periodic review by the DFEH and may be amended or supplemented as necessary from time to time.

¹ Apart from the registration scheme, the Ordinance also introduces a requirement for food traders to maintain transaction records. For more guidance, please refer to the “Code of Practice on Keeping Records Relating to Food” issued by the Centre for Food Safety, Food and Environmental Hygiene Department and available at <http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>.

CHAPTER 2 DEFINITIONS

2.1 The followings are legal definitions of some common terms relevant to the registration requirement under the Ordinance –

“Food” includes –

- (a) drink;
- (b) ice;
- (c) chewing gum and other products of a similar nature and use;
- (d) smokeless tobacco products; and
- (e) articles and substances used as ingredients in the preparation of food, but does not include –

- (f) live animals or live birds, other than live aquatic products;
- (g) fodder or feeding stuffs for animals, birds or aquatic products; or
- (h) medicine as defined by section 2(1) of the Pharmacy and Poisons Ordinance (Cap. 138) or Chinese herbal medicine or proprietary Chinese medicine as defined by section 2(1) of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance (Cap. 549).

“Drink” does not include water other than –

- (a) aerated water;
- (b) distilled water;
- (c) water from natural springs, either in its natural state or with added mineral substances; and
- (d) water that is placed in a sealed container and is intended for human consumption.

“Animal” includes reptiles, but does not include birds or fish.

“Aquatic product” means fish, shellfish, amphibian or any other form of aquatic life other than a bird, mammal or reptile.

“Import” means to bring or cause to be brought into Hong Kong by air, land or water.

“Food importer” means a person who carries on a food importation business.

“Food importation business” means a business that imports food (whether or not that is the principal activity of the business).

“Food distributor” means a person who carries on a food distribution business.

“Food distribution business” means a business the principal activity ^(Note) of which is the supply of food in Hong Kong by wholesale.

“Supply”, in relation to food, means –

- (a) to sell the food;
- (b) to offer, keep or exhibit the food for sale;
- (c) to exchange or dispose of the food for consideration; or
- (d) for commercial purpose, to give the food as a prize or to make a gift of the food.

“Wholesale” means the supply of food to a person who obtains the food for the purpose of supplying or causing to supply it to a third party in the course of business carried on by that person.

^{Note} In determining whether the principal activity of a business is the supply of food in Hong Kong by wholesale, regard must be had only to those activities of the business that are related to the supply of food.

CHAPTER 3 SCOPE OF APPLICATION

3.1 The Ordinance does not apply to any food that is not intended for human consumption nor live aquatic products which are kept in captivity for the purpose of propagation or promotion of growth.

3.2 Under Part 2 of the Ordinance, a person must not carry on a food importation or distribution business unless the person is registered as a food importer/ food distributor in respect of that business. A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes such a requirement imposed under the Ordinance commits an offence and is liable to a fine up to level 5 and to imprisonment up to 6 months.

3.3 The registration requirement does not apply if a person solely imports the food in the course of business of a food transport operator². Besides, a person is not required to register as a food distributor if he has already been registered as a food importer in respect of the business. Therefore, if a person carries on both food importation and distribution businesses, he only needs to be registered as a food importer.

3.4 The registration requirement is also not applicable to persons who import food solely for the purpose of export where the food is air transshipment cargo³ or during the period between import and export, the food remains in the vessel, vehicle or aircraft in which it was imported.

² “Food transport operator” means a person who transports food under a contract of carriage but at no time has any proprietary interest in the food.

³ “Air transshipment cargo” means transshipment cargo that is both imported and consigned for export in an aircraft and which, during the period between its import and export, remains within the cargo transshipment area of Hong Kong International Airport.

CHAPTER 4 PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY IN RELATION TO FOOD DISTRIBUTION BUSINESS

4.1 Section 5 of the Ordinance provides that a person must not carry on a food distribution business unless the person is registered as a food distributor in respect of that business.

4.2 Under section 2(1) of the Ordinance, “food distribution business” means a business the principal activity of which is the supply of food in Hong Kong by wholesale. Section 2(2) of the Ordinance further provides that in determining, for the purpose of the definition of “food distribution business” in subsection (1), whether the principal activity of a business is the supply of food in Hong Kong by wholesale, regard must be had only to those activities of the business that are related to the supply of food.

4.3 When defining “principal activity” and hence determining whether a trader is required to register as a food distributor, DFEH will, in so far as is practicable and reasonable, take into account a range of factors that he considers appropriate, including but not limited to the following –

- (a) the service provided/ advertised to be provided by the business in relation to supply of food;
- (b) historical sales volume and value in relation to supply of food;
- (c) the type and nature of business as shown in the Business Registration Certificate or other relevant documents, whether official or not;
- (d) the existence of credit facilities between the traders and their customers;
- (e) the existence of contracts on wholesale supply of food to retailers or catering establishments on a regular basis.

4.4 The modes of trading in relation to supply of food in Hong Kong are numerous and varied. Below are more common examples which may help food traders identify the principal activity of their business and hence whether they are required to register with DFEH as food distributors –

- (a) normally the major business of a supermarket is retail sales of food to ultimate consumers. The principal activity of a supermarket is therefore not food distribution;
- (b) market stalls such as meat stalls and vegetable stalls often supply raw food materials to catering establishments on a regular basis. Normally, most of these supplies only take up a small percentage of their business whereas their principal activity is still the supply of food to ultimate consumers. These

- market stalls are therefore not required to register as food distributors;
- (c) some market stalls such as poultry stalls have little retail business and their major profits come from wholesale of dressed poultry to catering establishments. The principal activity of such stalls should then be regarded as food distribution;
 - (d) some companies may distribute seasonal food such as hairy crabs/ mooncakes for a few months, and remain closed for the rest of the year. They should still be regarded as food distributors as the principal activity of their businesses is food distribution;
 - (e) some trading companies who predominantly distribute non-food products may occasionally distribute food products. They should be regarded as food distributor as the principal activity of their business in relation to the supply of food is distribution;
 - (f) local vegetable farmers who supply by wholesale their crops, whether or not through vegetable cooperation society, should be regarded as food distributors;
 - (g) local freshwater fish farmers who supply by wholesale their aquatic products are required to register as food distributors; and
 - (h) very often dried seafood retail shops/ fruit shops distribute food to restaurants/ food factories, but their major business is still retail sales. Generally they are not required to register as food distributors.

4.5 Even if a person does not carry on food distribution as his principal activity, he is still required under section 24 of the Ordinance to keep a record of the kinds of information set out in sub-section (1) if he, in the course of business, supplies food in Hong Kong by wholesale⁴. For example, for a meat/ vegetable stall whose principal activity is retail but occasionally supplies food to catering establishments, it is still required under the law to keep record for the wholesale supply of food to catering establishments.

4.6 Please note that the record must be made within 72 hours after the supply takes place. Failure to do so without reasonable excuse constitutes an offence and carries a maximum penalty of a fine at level 3 and imprisonment for 3 months.

⁴ We appreciate the difficulties for food retailers to distinguish between business customers and ultimate customers. Hence the Ordinance has provided a defence under section 25 if the food retailer concerned can show that it is his normal business to supply food by retail and it is reasonable to assume that the particular transaction was not a wholesale supply.

CHAPTER 5 APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

5.1 Sections 4 and 5 of the Ordinance require any person who carries on a food importation/ distribution business to register with DFEH as a food importer/ food distributor. Application for registration should be made in the name of a person, a partner authorized by a partnership⁵ or a body corporate, and must be made in the specified form at Appendix I. The application form can also be downloaded from our website (<http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>), or obtained from the following CFS' offices –

- (a) 43/F., Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong; and
- (b) Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong.

5.2 Under section 7(3) of the Ordinance, an application for registration must identify the main food categories and food classifications, as set out in Schedule 2 to the Ordinance, of all food to be imported by the business (in the case of a food importer) or supplied by wholesale by the business (in the case of a food distributor). An application must also include or be accompanied by any documents or information reasonably required by the DFEH for the purpose of considering the application.

5.3 Section 20(1) of the Ordinance provides that a person commits an offence if in, or in relation to, an application for registration, the person –

- (a) provides information or a document that the person knows is false in a material particular; or
- (b) recklessly provides information or a document that is false in a material particular.

A person who commits an offence under section 20(1) of the Ordinance is liable to a fine at level 3 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

5.4 The completed application form must be submitted either in person/ by mail to the Food Importer/ Distributor Registration and Import Licensing Office, Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong or by fax at 2156 1015, together with a copy of the valid Business Registration Certificate/ Hong Kong Identity Card/ other Proof of Identity (e.g. Certificate of Incorporation) for verification purpose. Application may also be submitted by e-form, which must be digitally signed.

5.5 Provided that all the required documents are submitted and that the applicant has complied with all relevant statutory requirements under the Ordinance, the applicant will be registered as a food importer/ food distributor on payment of the registration fee, which is currently $195 for a period of 3 years. A registration number will be assigned to the applicant under section 9 of the Ordinance.

5.6 Section 8(2) of the Ordinance provides that DFEH may refuse an application for registration if –

- (a) the applicant has repeatedly contravened the Ordinance in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made;
- (b) the applicant was previously a registered importer/ distributor and that registration was revoked in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made; or
- (c) in the case of an application on behalf of a partnership, the registration of any partner on behalf of the partnership in respect of the business was revoked in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made.

5.7 Under section 16 of the Ordinance, a person who is aggrieved by a decision of DFEH to refuse his application for registration may, within 28 days after becoming aware of the decision, appeal to the Municipal Services Appeals Board. The appeal does not suspend the decision unless DFEH decides otherwise.

5.8 The registration is effective for a period of 3 years, subject to renewal. The registration is non-transferable. Besides, there will be no refund of registration fee if the registration is revoked/ cancelled before expiry.

CHAPTER 6 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

6.1 The registration is effective for a period of 3 years, subject to renewal. Application for renewal of registration must be made in the specified form at Appendix II. The renewal form can also be downloaded from our website (<http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>), or obtained from the following CFS' offices –

- (a) 43/F., Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong; and
- (b) Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong.

6.2 Section 20(1) of the Ordinance provides that a person commits an offence if in, or in relation to, an application for registration, the person –

- (a) provides information or a document that the person knows is false in a material particular; or
- (b) recklessly provides information or a document that is false in a material particular.

A person who commits an offence under section 20(1) of the Ordinance is liable to a fine at level 3 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

6.3 The completed renewal form must be submitted either in person/ by mail to the Food Importer/ Distributor Registration and Import Licensing Office, Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong or by fax at 2156 1015. Application for renewal of registration can also be made online using the password provided by the CFS upon registration (<https://www.fics.gov.hk>).

6.4 Under section 11(2) of the Ordinance, a renewal application must be made no earlier than 4 months before the day on which the registration is due to expire. Renewal application made after expiry of the registration will not be accepted and the trader is required to submit afresh an application for registration.

6.5 Provided that the applicant has complied with all the relevant statutory requirements under the Ordinance, the registration will be renewed for a period of 3 years on payment of the renewal fee, which is currently $180.

6.6 Under section 12(2) of the Ordinance, DFEH may refuse an application for renewal if the applicant has repeatedly contravened the Ordinance in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made.

6.7 If an application is made but DFEH has not made a decision on the application before the day on which the registration is due to expire, the registration continues in effect until it is renewed or DFEH gives notice to the applicant of DFEH's decision to refuse the application.

6.8 A person who is aggrieved by a decision of DFEH to refuse his application for renewal may, within 28 days after becoming aware of the decision, appeal to the Municipal Services Appeals Board. The appeal does not suspend the decision unless DFEH decides otherwise.

CHAPTER 7 UPDATING OF INFORMATION

7.1 Section 17 of the Ordinance requires a registered food importer/ food distributor to give written notice to DFEH of any change in the information provided in his application for registration or renewal of registration, within 30 days after the change occurs.

7.2 Notification of any change in information may be made in the form at Appendix III. The form can be downloaded from our website (<http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>), or obtained from the following CFS' offices –

- (a) 43/F., Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong; and
- (b) Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong.

7.3 The completed form shall be submitted either in person/ by mail to the Food Importer/ Distributor Registration and Import Licensing Office, Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong or by fax at 2156 1015. Notification of any change in information of a registered food importer/ food distributor can also be made online using the password provided by the CFS upon registration (<https://www.fics.gov.hk>).

7.4 Under section 17(2) of the Ordinance, a registered food importer/ food distributor commits an offence if he, without reasonable excuse, fails to give notice to DFEH according to paragraph 7.1 above. It is also an offence if the registered food importer/ food distributor includes in the notice information that he knows is false in a material particular or recklessly includes in a notice information that is false in a material particular. A person who commits an offence under section 17(2) is liable to a fine at level 3 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

CHAPTER 8 EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION

8.1 For food importers/ food distributors who have already registered or have obtained a licence under other Ordinances, they will be exempted from the registration requirement as a trade facilitation measures. These food importers/ food distributors include –

- (a) the holder of the permission under section 30 of the Food Business Regulation (Cap. 132X);
- (b) the licensee of a licence under Part IV of the Food Business Regulation (Cap. 132X);
- (c) the licensee of a licence under Part III of the Frozen Confections Regulation (Cap. 132AC);
- (d) the licensee of a licence under Part II of the Hawker Regulation (Cap. 132AI);
- (e) the licensee of a licence under Part III of the Milk Regulation (Cap. 132AQ);
- (f) the licensee of a licence under the Offensive Trades Regulation (Cap. 132AX);
- (g) the licensee of a licence under Part II of the Slaughterhouses Regulation (Cap. 132BU);
- (h) the registered stockholder of a reserved commodity under regulation 13 of the Reserved Commodities (Control of Imports, Exports and Reserve Stocks) Regulations (Cap. 296A);
- (i) the holder of a licence under section 8 or a permit under section 14 of the Marine Fish Culture Ordinance (Cap. 353); and
- (j) the certificated owner of a vessel licensed under the Merchant Shipping (Local Vessels) (Certification and Licensing) Regulation (Cap. 548D) in respect of a Class III vessel⁶.

8.2 Under section 18 of the Ordinance, specified Authorities including Director-General of Trade and Industry, Director of Marine and Director of Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation are required to provide DFEH with specified information of all the licensees/ permittees/ certificated owners in relation to paragraph 8.1 above that is being held by them.

8.3 Upon request of DFEH in writing, licensees/ permittees/ certificated owners listed in paragraph 8.1 above who carry on food importation/ distribution business are required under section 19 of the Ordinance to provide DFEH with information that they would be required to provide in an application for registration had they been required to be registered under the Ordinance. Section 19(3) provides that it is an offence if a licensee/ permittee/ certificated owner, without reasonable excuse, fails to provide the information as required.

It is also an offence if he provides information that he knows is false in a material particular or recklessly provides information that is false in a material particular. A person who commits an offence under section 19(3) is liable to a fine at level 3 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

8.4 In case of any change in the information provided, the exempted traders should also notify DFEH as soon as possible of the change by the form at Appendix IV. The completed form shall be submitted either in person/ by mail to the Food Importer/ Distributor Registration and Import Licensing Office, Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong or by fax at 2156 1015. Notification of any change in information can also be made online using password provided by the CFS (<https://www.fics.gov.hk>).

8.5 Besides the above licensees/ permittees/ certificated owners, section 6 of the Ordinance confers upon the DFEH a power to exempt a person from the requirement to be registered in respect of a business. In deciding whether to grant an exemption, DFEH may, in so far as is practicable and reasonable, take into account all factors relevant to the circumstances of the case that he considers appropriate, including but not limited to the following –

- (a) whether the exemption would cause any undue threat to public health;
- (b) past records of the trader requesting for the exemption (e.g. previous conviction records under the Ordinance or the Public Health and Municipal Services Ordinance (Cap. 132), previous revocation of registration as a food importer/ food distributor);
- (c) whether the information of the food importer/ food distributor is readily available from other sources (e.g. in the case of exhibitors in a food exhibition, whether the detail information of the exhibitors would be available from the organizer);
- (d) whether the food in question would be used for exhibition purpose (including free tasting) or sold for human consumption; and
- (e) the type and quantity of food that would be imported or distributed.

8.6 As an example, exhibitors in some major food exhibitions in Hong Kong⁷ may be exempted from registration as food importers. This is because organizers of these exhibitions generally possess detailed information of exhibitors, and exhibitors would only import small quantities of food over a short period of time for exhibition purposes. Many of them will only be importing food items on a one-off basis, without the intention of becoming a regular importer at that stage.

8.7 DFEH may impose conditions on the exemptions (e.g. stipulating that the food can only be used for exhibition purpose and not for sale) and withdraw the exemption granted should the conditions not be complied with. In addition, food importers/ food distributors exempted from registration are still required to keep import or wholesale supply records, if any, under the Ordinance.

8.8 Traders who want to be exempted from the registration requirement can submit their request by filling in the application form at Appendix V. The application form can also be downloaded from our website (<http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>) or obtained from the following CFS' offices –

- (a) 43/F., Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong; and
- (b) Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong.

CHAPTER 9 REVOCATION OF REGISTRATION

9.1 Section 14 of the Ordinance provides that DFEH may revoke a person's registration at the person's request. On the other hand, DFEH may also revoke a person's registration if he is satisfied that –

- (a) the person has repeatedly contravened the Ordinance in respect of that business in the previous 12 month period;
- (b) in the case of a natural person, the person has died⁸; or
- (c) in the case of a business carried on by a corporation or partnership, the corporation has been wound up or the partnership has been dissolved.

9.2 In order to provide a more objective ground for DFEH to exercise his power to revoke a registration under paragraph 9.1(a) above, a Demerit Point System has been designed for this purpose. Appendix VI summarizes the Demerit Point System to be used in determining revocation of registrations, and lists out the number of demerit points attracted⁹ by various offences under the Ordinance.

9.3 If a registered food importer/ food distributor is convicted of any offence specified in Appendix VI in respect of his business, a specified number of demerit points will be assigned and entered against his registration. Upon conviction of the offences, these points will be recorded according to the date of the offence and not the date of conviction. The specified demerit points for a particular offence will be doubled, trebled and quadrupled respectively if the same offence is committed for the second, the third and the fourth time within a period of 12 months.

9.4 If the registered food importer/ food distributor accumulates 20 points or more within a period of 12 months, his registration may be revoked.

9.5 Demerit points entered in relation to an offence will be cancelled for the purpose of this Demerit Points System after a period of 12 months counting from the date of the offence.

9.6 For multiple offences resulting in convictions committed on the same day, the total number of demerit points to be entered against the registration will be the sum of the demerit points for each of the offences.

⁸ The registration is not inheritable and therefore if anyone wishes to continue operating the business registered under the name of the deceased, a new application for registration will have to be made.

9.7 A person who is aggrieved by a decision of DFEH to revoke his registration may, within 28 days after becoming aware of the decision, appeal to the Municipal Services Appeals Board. The appeal does not suspend the decision unless DFEH decides otherwise.

CHAPTER 10 THE REGISTER

10.1 DFEH is required under section 15 of the Ordinance to keep a register of the registered food importers and registered food distributors. The register shall include the following information –

- (a) the name of the food importation/ food distribution business;
- (b) the registration number; and
- (c) any other information that DFEH considers appropriate for the implementation of the Ordinance¹⁰.

10.2 In order to enable members of the public to ascertain whether a person is registered as a food importer/ food distributor, the register will be uploaded onto the CFS website (<http://www.foodsafetyord.gov.hk>). The register will also be made available for public inspection at the following CFS' offices –

- (a) 43/F., Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong; and
- (b) Room 119, 1/F., 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong.

¹⁰ Such information will include (i) the registered office/ business address of the registered food importer/ distributor; (ii) the telephone number of the registered food importer/ food distributor; and (iii) the food categories and food classifications of all food to be imported/ distributed by the registered food importer/ food distributor.

CHAPTER 12 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

12.1 Are importers/ distributors of live food animals, live poultry and live aquatic products required to register under the Food Safety Ordinance?

Live food animals and poultry are not defined as food under the Ordinance. Therefore, relevant importers/ distributors are not required to register with DFEH. On the other hand, live aquatic products (including live amphibians such as frog) are defined as food and therefore the importer/ distributors of such food are required to register.

12.2 For aquatic products captured outside Hong Kong waters by fishing vessels registered/ licensed in Hong Kong, are they regarded as imported food?

Local aquatic product means an aquatic product captured from a local fishing vessel, whether in Hong Kong waters or in other waters. Fishermen who bring in local aquatic products are not regarded as food importers. On the other hand, they will be regarded as food distributor if they distribute these local aquatic products. Nevertheless, if the fishermen are certificated owners of Class III vessels licensed under the Merchant Shipping (Local Vessels) (Certification and Licensing) Regulation (Cap 548D), they are exempted from registration under the Food Safety Ordinance.

12.3 Are food importers who imported food solely for the purpose of export or food in transit required to register under the Ordinance?

Under the Ordinance, the registration requirement does not apply to food imported solely for the purpose of export, and that the food is air transshipment cargo or during the period between import and export, the food remains in the vessel, vehicle or aircraft in which it is imported. However, if the food has undergone further processing, packaging/repackaging, transferring to other transportation means, the importer who acquired the food is required to be registered under the Ordinance as the food might probably be released into local market.

12.4 Is a food trader required to register separately for different types of food that he imports/ distributes?

To make the registration more user-friendly and convenient to the public, a food trader is only required to register once for all the food that he imports/ distributes. However, should he change the categories and classification of food that he imports/ distributes after the registration, he is required to notify DFEH within 30 days after the change occurs.

12.5 Is a food trader required to register separately for his food importation business and food distribution business?

A registered food importer is exempt from registration as a food distributor if he carries on food distribution business as well. On the other hand, a registered food distributor who also intends to carry on food importation business later has to apply afresh for registration as a food importer. Therefore, if a person conducts both food importation business and food distribution business, he should be registered as a food importer.

12.6 Is a food transport operator regarded as food importer?

A food transport operator who only transports food under a contract of carriage but at no time has any proprietary interest in the food is not regarded as a food importer. Therefore, he is not required to register under the Ordinance.

12.7 Some food traders might occasionally import food in the course of their businesses. However, food importation may not be their principal activity. Are they required to register as food importers under the Ordinance?

Hong Kong imports over 90% of food and therefore it is necessary to maintain a complete list of all food importers in Hong Kong such that in case of a food incident, DFEH could tackle the problem at source speedily and effectively by contacting a more defined group of food traders. In this connection, food importers are still required to register even though importation of food may not be the principal activity of their businesses.

12.8 Some children toys might include candies/ biscuits inside. Are the importers/ distributors of these children toys required to register as food importer/ distributor?

As the traders are engaged in importation/ distribution of food, they are still required to register as food importers/ distributors under the Food Safety Ordinance.

12.9 Will travelers who bring in food for gift/ personal use be regarded as food importers? What is the maximum quantity of food to be allowed?

Tourists or travelers bringing food at any quantity into Hong Kong for gift/ personal use would not be regarded as food importers. However, they are still required to observe the import requirements for certain types of food under other legislations. For example, it is the legal requirement that any person who brings in games, meat or poultry at any quantity without official health certificate issued by the competent authority of the country of origin, whether for the purpose of gift/ personal use or business, commits an offence.

12.10 Are trading agents or e-traders of food regarded as food importers/ food distributors under the Food Safety Ordinance?

Any person directly engaged in the transaction of importing/ distributing food and has acquired the food, whether through electronic or other means, is regarded as a food importer/ food distributor. For the purpose of the Ordinance, food is acquired when the person acquiring it takes possession or control of the food, even though the food may not be under his custody.

12.11 Are food manufacturers and local producers (e.g. fish/ vegetables farmers) required to register under the Food Safety Ordinance?

Food manufacturers and local producers who distribute their products/ produce to other food distributors, catering establishments or retailers are regarded as food distributors and hence required to register under the Food Safety Ordinance. However, some food manufacturers (e.g. holders of food factory licence) and local producers (e.g. licensees or permittees of marine fish culture) have already obtained licences, permits or registrations listed under paragraph 8.1 of this Guide and are exempt from the registration requirement.

12.12 How to apply for registration? What kinds of information are required for the application?

Application can be made in person, by mail or fax, or through internet (<https://www.fics.gov.hk>). The applicant is only required to provide basic information such as address of the business; nature of business of importation or distribution; contact means and types of food to be imported or distributed. Photocopy of Hong Kong Identity Card or Business Registration Certificate is also required for verification purpose.

12.13 How does a partnership business apply for registration?

For a partnership business, a person authorized by the partnership may apply for registration on behalf of the partnership and, if registration is granted, it is to be expressed to be granted to that person on behalf of the partnership.

12.14 What is the registration arrangement for a food importation/ distribution company with more than one branch businesses?

Generally, the registration of a business covers all the branch businesses operated under the same Business Registration Certificate of that business. In other words, branch businesses are not required to apply for registration individually if the mother company has already registered with DFEH.

12.15 Is a food trader required to register separately for different businesses that he owns? If a food importation or distribution business is sold, is the buyer required to apply for a new registration?

Pursuant to section 7(2) of the Ordinance, if a person has different businesses, the person needs to be registered in relation to each business separately. Therefore, if a person is registered in relation to a business and the person buys another business, the person is required to be registered again in relation to the second business. However, if a limited company that is a registered food importer/ food distributor is sold, the sale itself would not affect the limited company's registration in respect of its food importation/ food distribution business. For partnership, if there is any change to the partners in that partnership (which means the old partnership is dissolved), the new partnership would need to authorize a partner to apply for a new registration.

12.16 What is the fee for registration and renewal of registration?

The fee levels for registration and renewal of registration for a three-year term are $195 and $180 respectively.

12.17 Under what circumstances would an application for registration be refused?

DFEH may refuse an application if (i) the applicant has repeatedly contravened the Food Safety Ordinance in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made; (ii) the applicant has previously registered and that registration was revoked in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made; or (iii) in the case of an application on behalf of a partnership, the registration of any partner on behalf of the partnership in respect of the business was revoked in the period of 12 months immediately preceding the day on which the application was made.

12.18 Under what circumstances would a registration be revoked?

DFEH may revoke a person's registration at the person's request. DFEH may also revoke a person's registration if (i) the person has repeatedly contravened the Food Safety Ordinance in the previous 12 months; (ii) in the case of a natural person, the person has died; or (iii) in the case of a business carried on by a corporation or partnership, the corporation has been wound up or the partnership has been dissolved. In order to provide a more objective basis for DFEH to revoke a registration on the ground that a person has repeatedly contravened the Food Safety Ordinance, a Demerit Point System has been designed for the purpose.

12.19 Is there a grace period for implementation of the registration requirement under the Ordinance?

To allow sufficient time for traders to adapt to the new requirements under the Ordinance, the penalty provisions for failing to register and the record-keeping requirements will commence after a grace period of six months after the registration scheme starts. The grace period will end on 31 January 2012.

12.20 How much time is required for processing an application for registration?

Regarding application for registration received within the first four months of the six-month grace period, DFEH will grant approval before the grace period expires, provided all the required information is submitted. For application received within two months before expiry of the grace period, the lead time for granting approval will depend on the number of applications received.

After the expiry of the six-month grace period, DFEH will grant an approval within 7 working days upon receipt of all the required information.

12.21 What would DFEH do with the information of a registered food importer/ food distributor? Will the information be published for public inspection?

The information will be used for food tracing purpose in case of food incidents. Some information like the name of the food importation/ food distribution business, the registration number, the types of food to be imported/ food distributed and the address and telephone number of the registered food importer/ distributor would also be included in a public register that, according to the Ordinance, must be made available for public inspection.

12.22 What could a trader do if he forgets to renew his registration upon its expiry?

DFEH will issue reminder letters to traders – a reminder letter will be issued to registered food importers/ food distributors about 4 months before expiry of their registrations, and if application for renewal registration is not received, another reminder letter will be issued about 1 month before the expiry date. If a registered food importer/ food distributor still fails to renew his registration before the expiry date, he has to apply for registration afresh.

12.23 Would DFEH exempt some food traders from registration? What are the criteria for granting the exemption?

DFEH has been empowered under the Food Safety Ordinance to exempt a person from complying with the registration requirement. Before deciding whether to grant an exemption, DFEH may consider factors listed at paragraph 8.5 of this Guide.

12.24 Are there any other obligations that a person exempted from registration has to observe under the Food Safety Ordinance?

Any person who is exempt from complying with the registration requirement is still required to observe other provisions under the Ordinance, including requirements related to record keeping and the food safety order.
